

This form says:

Notre Dame of Maryland University (NDMU) and the English Language Institute (ELI) expect you to join in ELI program activities. They want you to know they don't have insurance to pay for what could happen to you or your belongings during ELI activities. If you are not sure about your physical ability to join in activities, you might want to see a doctor to get a check-up.

When you sign this:

1. You promise you will not ask the university or the ELI to pay for doctor bills or for damages. You might want to get accident insurance to pay for these things.
2. You promise you will not sue the university, the ELI or any of their officers, employees or students.

In further consideration of the right to participate, I release NDMU and the ELI or their officers, agents, and employees from any and all claims, demands or causes of action on account of any injury or loss which may occur as a result of my participation in University or ELI sponsored activities, whether arising through the negligence, omission, default, or other action of any person or organization associated with such activities.
