

Eternally Gibbons

$6.5 MILLION

Total project cost for restoring the historic beauty of Gibbons Hall and renovating its classrooms and corridors for 21st-century students

A diverse student body of 500 young women in Maryland's only Women's College dominate Gibbons

IN FALL 2014:

52% of first-year Women's students were eligible for Pell grants provided by the federal government to the neediest students

40% were expected to be the first in their families to earn a college degree

50% were women of color

IN 1873, THERE WERE 63 STUDENTS

TODAY, THERE ARE 2,800 STUDENTS

In 1873 the School Sisters of Notre Dame opened Gibbons Hall as the first academic and administrative building on campus

Gibbons is the home of the School of Education—the top private provider of new teachers in Maryland

In 2013, NDMU graduated 322 newly certified teachers

More than 1,400 of NDMU's undergraduate and graduate students take courses in Gibbons' 23 classrooms

