

RESIGNATION GUIDELINES

Notre Dame of Maryland University recognizes that, on rare occasions, serious extenuating circumstances may prevent a student from completing a term. Resignation is reserved for students who find themselves in this situation after the end of the withdrawal period until the last day of the semester.

Keep in mind, however, that the University STRICTLY ADHERES to its published policies, procedures and deadlines. Only in EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES will resignations be considered and approved. The burden of proof of these circumstances falls upon YOU, the student. Also note that action taken as a result of this request will only impact your academic record; resignation from a term does not release your financial obligation for the term.

Important!! Read this section before proceeding:

Please complete the checklist below; incomplete forms will be returned to you with no action taken. If approved by the Dean of your respective School the resignation will be processed by the Registrar's Office. All decisions are final. You will be notified via your NDM e-mail of the outcome of your request.
