This form is for use by returning Notre Dame students who had a dependency appeal granted the previous year.

The federal government defines specific criteria students must meet in order to be considered “independent” for financial aid purposes. If you do not meet these criteria, you may request the school’s financial aid office reevaluate your dependency status. A dependency appeal is the process the school uses to review your situation and determine if you are eligible to be considered independent. This can only be done in unique circumstances. NOTE: Parental unwillingness or inability to contribute is not considered a unique circumstance, nor is living on your own and paying for your own expenses.

Unique circumstances, such as being estranged from your parent(s) due to extreme conditions (e.g. child abuse, abandonment, alcoholism, or drug abuse, etc.), which can be documented by an objective third party (e.g. pastor, high school or college professor, a social service agency official, etc.) may qualify for this special treatment.

FAFSA

Complete and submit the 2021-2022 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) on-line at www.fafsa.gov to the best of your ability. If you file taxes, retrieve your 2020 tax information for the FAFSA via the IRS Data Retrieval process. Remember to include Notre Dame’s code (002065) so that the information may be released to our office.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Write and attach a clear and concise one page explanation of your current circumstance. Include an update of your familial situation discussing what has occurred over the last year in the following areas:

- your relationship with your biological and/or legally adoptive parents – include when you last spoke with your parent(s)
- specific dates of events cited in your statement
- where you have lived
- how you have supported yourself while living apart from your parents
- your sources of income during the past year – see below for additional information
- include if you have auto and/or health insurance and who pays for them – include a copy of your card(s)
